PORTFOLIO

matthewtlharvey@gmail.com

I am an aspiring full-stack developer that loves to learn new technologies and always aim to better my skills in all areas, from coding to testing and streamline designs.

Work Experience

Leicester County Council, 2019-2019

I worked on and with employees on various pre-built unfamiliar software to assist in development in dev environments. My work mainly consisted of database maintenance and alterations alongside creating templates and validating JavaScript queries.
